TIMELINE

Formed late in 2010 the band started shaping their instantly recognisable sound while writing their debut album Open Fire. The Room signed to Melodic Revolution Records in October 2012 and the album was released in December that year. 2014, and ill health saw the retirement of drummer Andrew Rae who was replaced by Chris York. June 2015 The Room sign to Bad Elephant Music and release 'Carrie' as a single.

The bands second album, Beyond The Gates of Bedlam was released in November 2015 to critical acclaim and extensive radio plays. Over the next couple of years the band completed a promotional UK tour, festival appearances and opened for Inglorious, Soft Machine, Focus and Lifesigns, winning many new fans along the way. 2017 saw more shows and festivals along with the release of a Live DVD recorded at The Robin2 Bilston UK. The Room grew from a 5 to a 6 piece band in 2018 as Eric Bouillette joined on guitar and Steve Checkley was replaced by Mark Dixon. December 2018 and the band signed to White Star Records and released the single Broken. The bands third studio album, 'Caught by the Machine', produced by the legendary John Mitchell, was released in Feb 2019.

LIVE SHOWS

All show dates can be found on the website and social media. The Room are eager to find more opportunities to perform in front of larger audiences at home and abroad.

“Without doubt one of the best live bands I have seen on the circuit over the years I have been doing this job. They should be on more major festival circuits!”

“This is Opus Rock like I’ve never heard before.
Power, passion and tunes that stay in your head long after the music has stopped. Live they are a revelation.”
